MEMORY TREE ORNAMENTS

The Catholic Daughters Court #2290 of St. Thomas the Apostle are now selling ornaments for the memory tree for $5.00. You can place your loved one’s name (whether living or deceased) on the back of the ornament and hang it on the tree. These special intentions will be remembered at the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Christmas Day. You can then pick up your ornaments. This fundraiser sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of St. Thomas the Apostle is for student scholarships and charitable works. Contact Jean Chapman for more information.

LITURGY OF THE DAY

INTRODUCTION. Today we begin the season of Advent, preparing for the day when we celebrate God becoming flesh, becoming Incarnate, becoming one of us. In doing so, we are called upon to prepare our hearts for Christ's presence in our lives. Every Christian's goal should be to reveal Christ to those we encounter. As we celebrate the First Sunday of Advent, let us think of how we can make his presence incarnate in what we say and do.

We hear a lot about waiting today. With the Chosen People in exile, Isaiah humbly prays for God's saving presence. Feeling abandoned, the psalmist sings, "Let us see your face and we shall be saved." Saint Paul assures the Christians in Corinth that they have what they need from God as they wait for Christ's coming in glory. Finally, in Mark's Gospel, Jesus advises his disciples to be on the watch, like servants waiting for their master to return.

REFLECTION. The Old Testament reading today is a prayer thought to have been written during the time that the Chosen People were exiled in Babylon. The writer—not Isaiah, but writing in the tradition of Isaiah—acknowledges their sinfulness and expresses their repentance. He longs for God to "rend the heavens and come down," to redeem them from their sin. What he cannot know is that God will do exactly that in the person of Jesus. Though he could not imagine God's Son coming into the world, he prophesied that God could do awesome deeds for those who place their trust in the Lord.

The writer of this passage from Isaiah uses this wonderful image of God as the potter. Think of a potter throwing the clay on a wheel and shaping a pot or vase. The potter's hands immediately get messy and the wet clay. We who are the clay have this image of God actively shaping us through a hands-on, messy process. Perhaps this sense of intimacy enables the writer to plead with God the way he does.

The caution in today's Gospel—"You do not know when the time will come" — is reminiscent of a pop quiz in school or a surprise inspection at work (Mark 13:33). The only assurance of being prepared, then, is to be prepared always. But Jesus does not only come at Christmas or at the end of time. Jesus also comes to us every day. Let us prepare our hearts to receive him always.

From the Desk of Fr. Philip
